
Cigna Hong Kong Launches New Medical Insurance Solution for Children

Plan offers healthcare protection and wealth accumulation with up to 118% guaranteed refund of premium

HONG KONG – September 13, 2018 Cigna Corporation's (NYSE:CI) Hong Kong business announced the launch of its new medical insurance solution Cigna Health4Kids Premium Refundable Plan for children in Hong Kong. This new solution combines healthcare protection and wealth accumulation, with up to 118% guaranteed refund of premium upon plan maturity. The plan underscores Cigna Hong Kong's commitment to meet the evolving needs of its customers.

According to a recent survey* about child health development and savings from a parents' perspective, children's health is the number one concern of Hong Kong parents. The survey also found that 55% of Hong Kong parents begin saving money for their children before they turn one years' old.

Mr. Yuman Chan, CEO and Country Manager, Cigna Hong Kong, said: "We understand children's health and providing them with a secure future is critical for Hong Kong parents. This brand-new product offers a special approach to help Hong Kong parents protect their children's health and well-being, while accumulating much needed funds for the child's future, towards such expenses as education or housing.

"At Cigna, we strive to remain true to our mission, which is to help improve the health, well-being and sense of security of those we serve. We encourage parents to make a wise decision to secure medical insurance for their children at an early age to enjoy lower premiums and, at the same time, safeguard their children's health and future needs," added Chan.
