HONG KONG – January 17, 2018 Cigna Hong Kong has appointed Yuman Chan as Chief Executive Officer and Country Manager with effect from 1 December, 2017 to drive Cigna's growth in the region. Mr. Chan is based in Hong Kong and reports to Patrick Graham, Chief Executive Officer, Asia Pacific, Cigna International Markets.

Yuman joined Cigna in 2015 as Head of Strategy and Business Development for Cigna International Markets, covering all regions outside the U.S. In the past two years, he contributed to leading Cigna in pursuing strategic growth and championed various programs and initiatives that brought commercial success.

“Yuman’s insurance career spans more than 20 years. With his breadth of experience and strong leadership skills, I’m confident he’ll be a great success in leading our Hong Kong business to meet our aggressive growth objectives. He will continue to build on Cigna Hong Kong’s strengths and capabilities to bring innovative customer experience to our group and individual clients, and deliver total healthcare solutions that meet our customers’ needs over their lifetime,” said Mr. Graham.

Prior to joining Cigna, Yuman spent 21 years at AIG holding various senior positions in the areas of risk management, divestitures, global finance systems and operations in Japan, Hong Kong and the U.S.

Yuman holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration – Management Information Systems, minoring in Computer Science from the Boston University.
